

Pick and Mix

National Museums Liverpool Autumn Public Lecture Series 2010 at the Treasure House Theatre, World Museum Liverpool

A tantalising selection of short talks by our curators on topics from child migration to Roman excavations

ADMISSION FREE

Thursday 23 September

- 2pm A Feminine Touch: Elaine Tankard and the creation of National Museums Liverpool's Tibet Collection
Emma Martin, Head of Ethnology
- 2.30pm Prehistoric, Iron Age, Roman and Medieval Excavations at Lathom, West Lancashire
Ron Cowell, Curator of Prehistoric Archaeology

Thursday 30 September

- 2pm The Archaeology of Sugar and Slavery in St Kitts and Nevis
Dr. Robert Philpott, Head of Archaeology
- 2.30pm Ford Madox Brown, The Last of England and Physiognomy
Dr. Pat Hardy, Curator of Works on Paper, Walker Art Gallery

Thursday 7 October

- 2pm Liverpool and Child Migration
Rachel Mulhearn, Director, Merseyside Maritime Museum
- 2.30pm Producing an Identification Key to UK China Mark Moth Caterpillars
Dr. Ian Wallace, Curator of Conchology & Aquatic Biology
- 3pm 'The Other George Melly': The Life of a Victorian Gentleman
Dr. Liz Stewart, Exhibition curator, Archaeology & Historic Environment

Thursday 14 October

- 2pm Liverpool's Museum – The First 150 Years
Paul Netterfield, Treasure House Theatre, World Museum
- 2.30pm Bones of Contention: The Return of an Aboriginal Skull to Australia, 2009
Lynne Heidi Stumpe, Curator of Oceanic Collections

Unlocking the power of our collections ♦ visit www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk or e-mail research@liverpoolmuseums.org.uk