

LANCASHIRE LOCAL HISTORY FEDERATION

Announces a special edition of The Lancashire Local Historian:

Aspects of Lancashire History: Essays in Memory of Mary Higham

Edited by Zoë Lawson

Contents - David Shotter: The Roman occupation and the landscape of north-west England/ Gillian Fellows-Jensen: Another look at the Danes in Lancashire/ Margaret Gelling: Place-names and landscapes in the north west/ Nigel R. J. Neil: Parks within parks like Russian dolls: the work of the Lathom Park Trust Archives Research Group/ Audrey Coney: Abusive behaviour in Upholland, Lancashire: the evidence of the Halmot records, 1599–1633/ B.J.N. Edwards: The Congregational (United Reformed) Church in Newton-in-Bowland/ Ian Whyte: Parliamentary enclosure and the creation of new farms in north-west England/ Margaret Panikkar: Surviving guide stones of the Ribble Valley/ Alan G. Crosby: The carriers of Clitheroe in the nineteenth century.

Pbk., 117p., illus., price £5.75 (incl. p&p)

If you wish to purchase a copy please send the slip below with a cheque for £5.75 made payable to the Lancashire Local History Federation to: The Treasurer, Mr Simon Martin, 21 Petticoat Lane, Higher Ince, Wigan, Lancashire, WN2 2LH.

Cut here

Please send me a copy of Aspects of Lancashire history. I enclose a cheque for £5.75 (£5 + 75p p&p)

NAME-----

ADDRESS-----

-----POSTCODE-----