

Local Health, Local History

Lancashire County Library and Information Service is celebrating Local and Community History Month in May 2008 by looking at the History of the Health of the County. There are exhibitions and events in many libraries and you can find details at www.lancashire.gov.uk/libraries.

As part of the month the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography is providing free access to a special page on Local Health, Local History in the Oxford DNB. This can be accessed from <http://www.oup.com/oxforddnb/info/freeodnb/libraries/lancs2/>. There is free access to the full DNB for Library Members through the Online Reference Library – www.lancashire.gov.uk/onrl.
